Dates and courses

For further details, including dates and courses available at Universidad de Chile as part of the APRU Virtual Exchange Program, please visit: Universidad de Chile [Season 1, 2021-22] – APRU Virtual Student Exchange

Students can select courses only from the list available on the above website and may enrol in up to two courses maximum.

UNSW Eligibility Requirements

For UNSW virtual exchange eligibility requirements please see the Virtual Exchange section of the Student Exchange Tutorial. Please read all information carefully before applying.

Enrolment and Fees

Limited exchange places available. Successful students will be enrolled in specific exchange course code(s) at UNSW for the terms they are undertaking their virtual exchange courses. Students continue to pay their tuition fees to UNSW

How to Apply

Please apply through the Virtual Exchange Application by 9:00am on 22 July (late applications cannot be accepted)

Please copy the program name in this post's title and paste it into the ‘First Preference Host University Name’ field on the Virtual Exchange Application form.

Important: students must apply to UNSW via Virtual Exchange Application first and be selected and nominated by UNSW before they are eligible to apply on the APRU website.

Transfer of Credit:

If you are selected for this virtual student exchange program, you will be required to get partner university courses approved for credit by your UNSW Faculty. This is a condition of participating in the virtual student exchange program. Further information about the course approval process will be sent to you once you have submitted your application. Information is also available in the Student Exchange Tutorial
