On this page you will find information on fees and fee payment.

What do I pay? When do I pay? How do I pay?

For current students, your Fee statement is available on myUNSW at the beginning of each semester. Your current liability is also displayed in the centre column of the myUNSW My Student Profile tab.

---

Financial assistance

Government HELP schemes including HECS, scholarships and student loans...

Fee policy and procedure

Covers fee payment, refunds, debt and more

Fee remission (Withdrawal)

For tuition fees or contribution amounts

Fraudulent documentation

Implications of providing fraudulent documentation

Program discontinuation

Fee implications for discontinuing your program in your first semester of study

Sponsored students

Fee information for sponsored students

More FAQs

See common terminology and answers to frequently asked questions

Contacts

Financial team contact details for more information
See also

2017-18 Budget student factsheets

Australian Government Reforms

Scam Warning

Scam alert for international students

Do you have a debt?

Debt to the University blocks your access to enrolment and other services