On this page you will find information on fees and fee payment.

What do I pay? When do I pay? How do I pay?

For current students, your Fee statement is available on myUNSW at the beginning of each semester. Your current liability is also displayed in the centre column of the myUNSW My Student Profile tab.

---

Financial assistance

Government HELP schemes including HECS, scholarships and student loans...

Fee policy and procedure

Covers fee payment, refunds, debt and more

Fee remission (Withdrawal)

For tuition fees or contribution amounts

Fraudulent documentation

Implications of providing fraudulent documentation

Program discontinuation

Fee implications for discontinuing your program in your first semester of study

Sponsored students

Fee information for sponsored students

More FAQs

See common terminology and answers to frequently asked questions

Contacts

Financial team contact details for more information
Australian Government Reforms

On 1 May 2017 the Australian Government announced a range of proposed reforms to improve the higher education sector. Please see the Government's Study Assist website for more information about how these changes might affect you.

More detailed information about the Higher Education Reform Package is available in the Higher Education Reform Student FAQS

Please note: the information provided in the Higher Education Reform Student FAQS is subject to the passage of legislation.

Student Start-up Loan Replaces Student Start-up Scholarship

The Student Start-up Loan is available to new student payment recipients.

Scam Warning

Scam alert for international students

Do you have a debt?

Debt to the University blocks your access to enrolment and other services