On this page you will find information on fees and fee payment.

What do I pay?   When do I pay?   How do I pay?

For current students, your Fee statement is available on myUNSW at the beginning of each semester. Your current liability is also displayed in the centre column of the myUNSW My Student Profile tab.

Financial assistance
Government HELP schemes, Scholarships and more

Fee policy
Covers fee payment, refunds, debt and more

Fee Remission (Withdrawal)
For tuition fees or contribution amounts

Program Discontinuation
Fee implications for discontinuing your program in your first semester of study

More FAQs
See common terminology and answers to frequently asked questions

Contacts
Financial team contact details for more information

Australian Government Reforms
On 1 May 2017 the Australian Government announced a range of proposed reforms to improve the higher education sector. Please see the Government’s Study Assist website for more information about how these changes might affect you.

More detailed information about the Higher Education Reform Package is available in the Higher Education Reform Student FAQs
Please note: the information provided in the Higher Education Reform Student FAQS is subject to the passage of legislation.

Student Start-up Loan Replaces Student Start-up Scholarship

The Student Start-up Loan is available to new student payment recipients.

Commonwealth Support

Assistance for domestic students and holders of humanitarian visas, residing in Australia.

Fees Scam Warning

For International Students

Do you have a debt?

Debt to the University blocks your access to enrolment and other services