On this page, you can find information about student loans provided by the Student Support and Success team.

Book an individual appointment to meet with an Student Support Advisor (available in person, over the phone, or via email), or attend one of our workshops to learn how to manage your income, meet your financial obligations, and reduce stress associated with money.

The Student Support and Success team also administer student loans to help where financial circumstances may be impacting your ability to successfully complete your studies, or where the money is required to promote your safety or well-being. Student loans are usually available up to $1500. However, requests for up to $4000 may be considered in exceptional circumstances.

What are loans NOT available for?

- General living costs if in receipt of a scholarship that covers general living costs.
- Repayment of existing debts or loans.
- Tuition fees.
- Luxury goods and services such as jewellery and overseas travel.
- Travel/health insurance costs.
Exchange program costs.

A student who already has a current loan cannot apply for another loan unless they:

- repay the current loan
- agree to combine the debt for both loans and have the capacity to repay the renegotiated amount.

Eligibility

Applications for loans will only be considered from students who:

- are currently enrolled
- have completed at least one semester/term of study, or, if in their first term, the census date has passed
- have the capacity to repay the loan within the required time frame
- are in good academic standing
- do not have any outstanding debts owed to UNSW
- provide documentary evidence in support of their application for loans of more than $200.

Students on Study Abroad or Exchange programs are classified as non-award students and are not eligible to apply for a student loan.

How to apply

Please email advisors@unsw.edu.au for more information.

For loans of greater than $200, you must provide documentary evidence in support of any claim you make on the application form. You will need to book an appointment with a Student Support Advisor or, alternatively, send an email (advisors@unsw.edu.au) or call 02 9374 9201 for your loan application to be processed.

Documentary evidence includes:

- a copy of your most recent bank statement
- proof of income e.g. a Centrelink statement, payslips for the month preceding the application
- a quote/statement for the purpose of the loan.

Frequently asked questions

How is the loan paid to me?

Loans are normally paid into the bank account nominated on the loan application form and may take up to five working days to be credited.

How are repayments determined?

- Loans of up to $200 must normally be repaid in full within two months.
- Loans of up to $500 must normally be repaid in full within six months.
- Loans of up to $1500 must normally be repaid in full within twelve months.
- Repayments for loans in excess of $1500 are negotiated at the time of interview.

What happens if I do not repay my loan?

If you fail to repay your loan, the University will terminate your loan contract and may take legal proceedings to recover the outstanding balance of the loan. In addition, you will have a block placed on your student record. This block will prevent:

- future enrolment
- access to examination results
- access to library services
• access to buildings and computer labs
• access to Web CT
• Issuing of transcripts
• graduation.

What happens if I discontinue my studies before I have repaid the loan?

If you discontinue your studies, the balance of the loan becomes payable immediately. If you are experiencing financial hardship and are unable to meet this repayment arrangement, you must immediately advise Student Support and Success.

How will I be notified if my loan is successful/unsuccessful?

You will be notified of the outcome of your application by email to your student email account.

How do I appeal if I am refused a loan?

If you wish to appeal against the decision on your loan application, you should send a letter of appeal to the Manager, Student Support and Success, G17A John Goodsell Building, UNSW, Kensington NSW 2052.

Can part-time students apply for a student loan?

Yes

Can International Students apply for a loan?

Yes.

Is interest charged on the loan?

No.

What happens if my circumstances change again, and I cannot make the repayments?

- For loans processed by the Student Support and Success team, you must contact a Student Support Advisor as soon as you realise you are in financial difficulty and complete this Student Loan Extension form (pdf).
- For PhD Research students where loans are issued by the Graduate Research School, you must email domestic.grs@unsw.edu.au.
- For loans issued by UNSW Canberra, you must email SAS@adfa.edu.au.
