UNSW offers a number of support and development services for all students. From this page you can access additional support services available for postgraduate coursework students.

Postgrad Coursework Day
Supporting postgraduate coursework students in their academic coursework.

Academic standing
You can find the academic standing rules for postgraduate students here.

Handbook
Visit the Handbook site and click the postgraduate coursework study link.

Postgraduate lounge
The Postgraduate Lounge at Arc is a great space exclusively for postgraduate students to relax and to meet with fellow students to socialise or study. You must be a member of Arc to make use of this facility.

Program authority contacts
Your Program Authority is the contact for specific enquiries about your program.

Program transfer
Applying for program transfer from one approved UNSW Postgraduate Coursework program to another.

Library services for students
Room bookings, online resources and comprehensive Subject Guides to help you quickly source information relating to your study.

Arc postgraduate council
The Postgraduate Council (PGC) provide information, support, representation and advice on issues that affect postgraduate students.

AGSM for postgraduate students
The Australian Graduate School of Management (AGSM) provides many resources for their postgraduate coursework students and has a section on their website to make it easier for all their postgraduate students to find the information they are looking for.
Faculty resources

Visit your faculty or school website for facilities available to you.

See also

Postgraduate research

Support for research students

Student resources

Course and program resources

Room bookings

Need a meeting room?

Support advisors

Get help today!