

Student ID Card

All students enrolling at UNSW are issued with a Student Identification (ID) Card.

You will use your Student ID Card for identification, building access and university transactions such as borrowing books from the UNSW Library.

Your card must be:

- Carried whenever you are on campus;
- Presented when borrowing books from the university libraries;
- Presented when using any of the secure access labs, buildings and study spaces;
- Displayed on your desk for the duration of all university examinations.
