All students enrolling at UNSW are issued with a student identification (ID) card.

You will use your student ID card for identification, building access and university transactions such as borrowing books from the UNSW Library.

Your card must be:
Carried whenever you are on campus;
Presented when borrowing books from the university libraries;
Presented when using any of the secure access labs, buildings and study spaces;
Displayed on your desk for the duration of all university examinations.

How to get a student ID card
Information for new commencing students.
Find out more

Replacement cards
How to get a replacement Student ID card.
Find out more

Conditions of use
Information on the conditions of use for Student ID cards.
Find out more

Contacts for student ID
Contact the Nucleus: Student Hub.
Find out more