Gain a headstart in your career with practical experience overseas to complement your studies

UNSW schools and faculties offer connections to a variety of opportunities for students including international competitions, conferences and field studies. The UNSW Global Education Office provides support to students wishing to take advantage of these opportunities and is available to discuss any plans you may have.

Scholarships

The Office of the Pro-Vice Chancellor (International) may provide travel scholarships to selected UNSW students wishing to undertake global mobility programs that sit outside the formal semester exchange program. For more information Search the UNSW Scholarships.

Opportunities

Study tours, field trips and conference are promoted throughout the year on our Global Notices. We recommend you Subscribe for updates via email or RSS.

You should register with the UNSW Global Education Office and undertake a risk assessment before heading overseas. UNSW does not endorse any third party provider programs and participation is at your own risk. For more information see How to prepare for departure.

Internships

Some of our 200 global education partner universities offer overseas internships, these are generally advertised on the Global Notices.

For more information on paid internships, internships for academic credit and volunteer internships, see Internships and Work Placements.
Jobs and volunteering

Jobs

- Going Global - The Going Global website provides expert advice for finding jobs at home or abroad.
- Lockin China - Interested in a graduate job in China?
- UNSW Careers Online - Jobs board featuring casual, part-time, contract, full-time, vacation, internship, industrial training and graduate positions.

Volunteering

Taking advantage of volunteer opportunities abroad provides an international dimension to your skills. These add considerable value to your resume, and enable you to present yourself as a high-value employee with interests and aptitudes beyond your studies.

The Global Education Office supports you if you wish to go on these experiences. We are happy to discuss any plans you may have so do contact our Global Education Advisors.

Some of our 200 global education partner universities offer overseas volunteer opportunities, these are generally advertised on our Global Notices.

For more information on community and overseas volunteering opportunities, see Community and Overseas Volunteering.

Conferences, field trips and more

UNSW's 200 Global Partner Institutions offer a range of overseas opportunities including conferences, field trips and study tours. These opportunities are advertised on the Global Notices page.

UNSW Schools and Faculties also offer connections to a variety of opportunities for students including international competitions, conferences and field studies.

The Global Education Office provides support if you wish to take advantage of these opportunities. We are happy to discuss any plans you may have so do contact our Global Education Advisors.

Language programs and conversation skills

See our Language Programs and Skills page for information on studying foreign languages at UNSW with the:

- Language Exchange Program
- School of Humanities and Languages
- UNSW Institute of Languages
- Confucius Institute

Need more information?

Contact the Study Abroad and Exchange Office:

- ☑️ John Goodsell Building, Room G30
- ☑️ 9385 3179
- ☑️ Send enquiry
- ☑️ Book appointment