

Accommodation & Housing

At UNSW we have accommodation options to suit all living styles. Whether you want to live on or off campus, prefer apartment living or thrive in the community feel of a college, on this page you will find all the accommodation information you need to make an informed decision.

Select below if you are interested in on campus or off campus accommodation:

On campus living options

Living on campus while you are a student has many benefits. Not only is every campus facility within your easy reach, it is value for money, safe, and provides a sense of community in a fun and friendly environment.

Off campus accommodation

Are you interested in accommodation outside of UNSW? Here you can find information about what to consider when choosing a property, short and long-term housing options, and tenancy information.
