Welcome to accommodation and housing

Welcome to accommodation and housing. At UNSW we have information on accommodation options to suit all living styles. Whether you want to live in a college or apartment on campus, or get information about how to find the best off campus living options we've got you covered!

Accommodation tips & tricks
The top 10 things you need to know before securing a rental in Sydney.

Types of housing & your rights
There are a number of different types of housing arrangements in Sydney, find out which type suits you best and what your rights are!

Accommodation help
From free legal advice to the tenancy services you need to know about, we've compiled a list of resources for you.

Property search and inspections
Sometimes find long term accommodation in Sydney can be challenging. Here is a comprehensive list of things you need to consider.
Choosing the right location

Sydney is a very big city and it might hard to find your way around if you’re new here. We've put together some info to help you choose where you want to be staying.

Tenancy: Before, during and after

Information you need to know before entering into a tenancy agreement, during and when ending a tenancy.

Arranging short term accommodation

It's very important to arrange short term accommodation prior to arriving in Australia, find out why and how!

Glossary of rental terms

A list of all of the tenancy-related terms you need to know.

Science Wellbeing Webinar_0

Tenancy webinars

See previous recorded webinars with tenancy advice and register for future webinars.