24 hour counselling and mental health

Worried or anxious and need to talk to someone?

These services help thousands of Australians every year. Give them a call, they can help and support you too.

Not sure if someone you know needs helps?

Here are warning signs to determine if someone is in need of mental help.

Victims of crime

A victim of crime is someone who has suffered physical harm, emotional trauma and/or personal property loss resulting from criminal activity. If you have been a victim of crime don’t be afraid to come forward to report the crime as our Campus Security Services Officers are specially trained to help you.

For support outside UNSW see:

- NSW Victims Services - for victims of crime
- Crime Stoppers - provide crime information anonymously
- NSW Police Assistance Line - for non-emergencies and general enquiries

First aid and insurance for injuries

If you require non-urgent First Aid assistance and cannot make it to the University Health Service, contact Campus Security on phone 9385 6000. Each Patrol Officer carries a First Aid kit or pouch.

Students are covered by Insurance for Injuries incurred in UNSW activities.
