Commonwealth Government legislation (the Higher Education Support Act 2003) stipulates that if special circumstances apply, then students may apply for re-crediting of FEE-HELP balances (which results in remission of FEE-HELP debt), remission of HECS-HELP debts, and repayment of upfront student contribution amounts. (Repayment of any other upfront payments is at the discretion of the University.)

You cannot apply for a re-credit, remission or repayment if you have successfully completed the course.

You cannot apply for a re-credit, remission or refund of the Student Services Amenities Fee (SSAF) after census date has passed, as your liability for this fee is based on your enrolled subject load as at the relevant census date.

You must apply within 12 months of withdrawing from the course or, in the event that you did not withdraw, within 12 months of the end of the teaching period in which the course was undertaken.

Applications submitted outside the 12 month timeframe will not be considered unless you can clearly demonstrate that it was not possible for you to submit your application within the relevant 12 month period.

What are Special Circumstances?

- Beyond your control and
- Did not make their full impact on you until on or after the census date and
- Made it impracticable for you to complete the requirements for the course in the period during which you undertook or were to undertake the course

Special circumstances do not include a lack of knowledge or understanding of requirements under the schemes or a person’s incapacity to repay a HELP debt.

Circumstances are beyond your control if a situation occurs that a reasonable person would consider is not due to the person’s action or inaction, either direct or indirect, and for which the person is not responsible. This situation must be unusual, uncommon or abnormal.

Circumstances do not make their full impact on you until on or after the census date if your circumstances occur before the census date but worsen after that day, occur before the census date but the full effect does not become apparent until the census day or occurs only after the census date.

Circumstances which made it impracticable for you to complete the requirements for the course may include (but are not limited to):
- Medical circumstances;
- Family/personal circumstances;
- Employment related circumstances;
- Course related circumstances.

What Supporting Documentation Should I Include?

Wherever possible, you should provide original or certified independent supporting documentation to support your claims.

For medical reasons, you should submit a letter/statement from your medical practitioner which indicates the date your condition began and/or changed, how your condition affected your ability to study and when (the date) it became apparent that you could not continue with your studies. (You should inform your doctor that the statement will be sent to UNSW in support of your application).

For family/personal reasons, you should submit a statement from a doctor, counsellor or independent member of the community (for example, a Justice of the Peace or Minister of Religion) stating the date your personal circumstances began and/or changed, how your circumstances affected your ability to study and when (the date) it became apparent that you could not continue with your studies.

For employment related circumstances you should submit a letter from your employer which states your previous work hours and location, your current work hours and location, the reason for the change, when the change was effective from and when it was communicated to you.

For course related circumstances, you should submit a statement from your Course Authority outlining your circumstances.

Please be aware that if you provided falsified documents in support of your application, then this will result in one of a range of penalties, from failure in the course to suspension or exclusion. In some cases, the matter could also be reported to ICAC.

As a student, you should be aware of your obligations and responsibilities under the Student Code which can be found here: https://student.unsw.edu.au/conduct
How Do I apply?

You should complete all the sections in the attached form and ask your Course Authority to complete their sections of the form. Submit your completed form, together with supporting documentation to:

The Nucleus: Student Hub, Level 2 (Entry Level), UNSW Main Library (in person) or to Student Lifecycle, Level 9, Library, UNSW Sydney NSW 2052 (by post).

Your Course Authority or Faculty may also submit this application on your behalf.

How is My Application Assessed?

Your application together with all supporting documentation provided by you and any information provided by your Course Authority is assessed against the published criteria. The application is assessed by Student Lifecycle, not your Course or Program Authority.

What Outcomes Can I expect?

If you clearly demonstrate that your circumstances meet all of the criteria, your application will be approved and the fees for the course(s) will be re-credited, remitted or available to be refunded (whichever is applicable).

A grade of PW (permitted withdrawal) will be applied to your academic record for each of the approved courses and this will appear on your academic transcript.

If you do not clearly demonstrate that your circumstances satisfy all of the criteria, your application will not be approved and the final grade achieved will remain on your academic record and will appear on your transcript.

You will usually be advised of the outcome of your application within 28 days of submission. If there is a delay in processing your application, you will be advised of the reason for the delay within 28 days of the submission of your application. All communication will be via your student email account.

Can I Appeal if my Application is Not Successful?

Yes. If your application is not successful, you have the right to appeal. Your appeal must be made in writing by email studentadministration@unsw.edu.au with the words “Fee Remission Appeal” as the title, within 28 days of the date you were notified of the outcome of your application(s).

I Need Advice – Who Should I Contact?
