LIFE’S A JOURNEY
CHOOSE YOURS

For those who never stand still
What international options are available to you?

Choose from several exciting programs to study overseas as part of your degree. Options include:

Student Exchange
- Study overseas at a partner university for 1 to 2 semesters and gain academic credit.

Short Courses and Study Tours
- Take courses at partner universities, for a period of 2 to 10 weeks.

International Internships and Volunteering
- Gain valuable experience overseas for 2 weeks to 6 months.

Steps to apply

1. Research your options.
   - Decide between semester, year and short courses
   - Check website for further information
   - If applying for Exchange complete the compulsory Student Exchange Tutorial

2. Book an appointment with an advisor to talk through your options.

3. Complete the application for your selected option. Applications for all programs are online

4. The Study Abroad & Exchange team will notify you once your nomination has been finalised

Why go abroad as a part of your degree?

- Gain a competitive edge in the international work force.
- Gain access to a variety of courses offered overseas that might not be available at UNSW.
- Improve your ability to become an independent and reflective learner.
- Strengthen your capacity for analytical and critical thinking.
- The chance to engage in international networks meeting people from different cultural backgrounds and perspectives in a professional context.
Student Exchange

Am I eligible to apply?
The Exchange program is available to all undergraduate and postgraduate students, depending on the following requirements:

- Undergraduate students need to complete 24 units of credit of your current degree at UNSW to apply and have at least 18 remaining units of credit in your degree at the start of your exchange.
- Postgraduate students must be enrolled in a degree that is at least 3 full-time semesters in duration. You apply in your first semester to go on exchange in your third semester.
- Sponsored International students (AUSAID, OPRS etc) are not eligible to go on overseas programs.
- You must have at least a credit average to be eligible to apply.
- Your participation in the program is dependent on faculty approval.

Scholarships/funding
Scholarships are available for exchange, including the New Colombo Plan and other Australian government funds.

Students that are eligible can receive OS-HELP loans to fund overseas exchanges.

Study requirements
You must enrol in a full time load while on exchange and transfer back a full time load of courses relevant to your UNSW degree.
